

GROUP TOURS - GOLF HUB AND SPOKE TOUR

DAY ONE: Arrive in the Big Easy, play a round of golf at Audubon City Park, an executive par 3 golf course, or the TPC (Tournament Player Club) of Louisiana. Located only 15 minutes away from the French Quarter, this 7,600 yard, par-72 championship course is nestled among stately cypress and oak trees and is abundant with natural vegetation.
Overnight in New Orleans.

DAY TWO: After breakfast, travel to Plaquemine for a round at of The Island. This 7,000-yard, par 72 course is carved out of a sugar plantation. With nine lakes on the course, you'll be in for a challenge! That afternoon, travel to Morgan City.
Overnight in Morgan City/Franklin.

DAY THREE: Wake up along the Cajun Coast and prepare for the ultimate golf experience - the Atchafalaya Golf Course at Idlewild. This course was named the #1 golf course to play in Louisiana by Golfweek Magazine in 2008 and 2009. Designed by internationally renowned designers Robert Von Hagge, Smelek, and Baril, the Atchafalaya Golf Course at Idlewild has 18 holes of picturesque beauty. The 7,533-yard public golf course contains five lakes and 10 native wetland areas that encompass nearly 40 acres of this 175-acre layout, and is home to over 40 species of indigenous flora. Over one-half million yards of native soil was used to develop dramatic elevations on the course creating spectacular vistas. Unique to the Atchafalaya at Idlewild is the large common green shared by holes nine and 18. The course features five sets of tees, each named after an animal native to the basin, large fairways and generous pin placements. The course includes a complete practice facility and pro line rental clubs. Enjoy lunch at the Acadian-style clubhouse, which contains over 130,000 board feet of cypress lumber. That afternoon, visit Morgan City's Historic District, dine at one of our local restaurants, or try your luck at Cypress Bayou Casino or the Amelia Belle Casino.
Overnight in Morgan City/Franklin.

DAY FOUR: Return to New Orleans.
