

Outstanding Hospitality Employee of the Year Rules

Purpose:

This award is to provide management and owners with the opportunity to reward exceptional service that an employee has rendered to a guest, the management, the community or the hospitality industry of Louisiana.

Rules:

1. The award is open to front line employees, room keepers, cashiers, docents, waiters or waitresses, hostesses, and valet attendants.
2. Attractions may only nominate one person.
3. Restaurants may only nominate one person.
4. Hotels may nominate one front line employee and one room keeper.
5. Casinos may nominate up to one employee in three different front line jobs.
6. A nominee must have been in the hospitality industry for a minimum of one year.
7. Nominees are judged on the basis of outstanding and unusual service to the attraction, restaurant or hotel, its guests and/or the community.
8. All entries must be received at the Cajun Coast Visitors & Convention Bureau office no later than January 9, 2020, by 4:30 p.m.

To Submit an Entry:

1. Complete the official entry form.
2. Be sure to explain on one page in detail, why this employee should be honored. Saying he or she is a fine and loyal employee is not enough. Performing special services, heroic deeds or adding to the well being of the guest are all examples of outstanding service that reflect well on the hotel, restaurant, attraction and industry.
3. Include guest comment cards, newspaper clippings, testimonial letters and other supporting evidence for the consideration of the judges.
4. Entries should be typed, but handwritten nominations will be accepted.
Please write legibly.

If you have questions, please contact Carrie Stansbury at 985-380-8224.